For Immediate Release:

The Three Tenors (Who Can't Sing) is a night of stand-up (and a sit down) with three made men of comedy. The 22-city national tour started January 22nd in Boston and is coming to Stambaugh Auditorium on Friday, February 19th. Tickets for this event are available through the Florence and Ward Beecher Box Office at Stambaugh Auditorium. This show is presented by Best Entertainment Group.

The Three Tenors (Who Can't Sing) stars Vic DiBietto who is now considered the "Godfather of Comedy." DiBietto has taken the internet by storm with millions of views and multiple viral videos including "Bread and Milk" and his own television talk show. He has toured the country selling out clubs and theaters along the way.

Joining DiBietto are two stand-up guys from the neighborhood, Richie Minervini and Fred Rubino. Both are top headliners in The Family. The three performers will bring their incredible stand up to the stage and then have a sit down together with hilarious improvisation and audience participation.

Videos of The Three Tenors (Who Can't Sing) are available on their Facebook page, The Three Tenors Who Can't Sing, as well as YouTube. There is a VIP ticket option for this show which includes a meet and greet with the Tenors.

Tickets for The Three Tenors (Who Can't Sing) are available now through the Florence and Ward Beecher Box Office at Stambaugh Auditorium. For more information or for tickets, visit stambaughauditorium.com or call 330-259-0555. The Box Office is open Monday-Friday 9am-6pm and Saturday 10am-2pm.

About Stambaugh Auditorium:

Stambaugh Auditorium is a non-profit public auditorium which opened in 1926 through the generous gift of Youngstown area businessman Henry H. Stambaugh. The centerpiece of the complex is the Concert Hall which has a seating capacity of 2,553 and is renowned for its near perfect acoustics. The auditorium also features a 9,700-square-foot ballroom (Jeanne D. Tyler Grand Ballroom), a recital hall (Anne K. Christman Memorial Hall), and a formal garden at the southern end of the building, all of which can be rented for public, business, or private functions. The venue welcomes national and international performers on a regular basis while also hosting local and regional events many of which use the Florence and Ward Beecher Box Office to sell and distribute tickets. Stambaugh Auditorium was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1984.
