For Immediate Release:

On Wednesday, January 30, 2019, Stambaugh Auditorium will present Postmodern Jukebox (PMJ). Postmodern Jukebox is known for reworking popular modern music into different vintage genres, especially swing and jazz. PJM has now expanded into a variety show of incredibly talented rotating artists performing these reinvented arrangements live. Tickets for will go on sale this Friday, August 17 at 10:00 AM. Reserved seats range in ticket price from $20-$40 plus applicable fees.

Since Scott Bradlee created the project, Postmodern Jukebox has accumulated more than 3.5 million YouTube subscribers, with over 950 million views. Each week the group publishes a new video on the platform, originally shot in Bradlee's living room, the videos and sets have become more elaborate over time. The multi-talented collective reimagines contemporary pop, rock and R&B hits in the styles of swing to doo-wop, ragtime to Motown. Bradlee, himself, puts it, "pop music in a time machine," interpreting hits by everyone from Lady Gaga and Beyoncé to Radiohead and Maroon 5.

PMJ's unique style of vintage twist on modern pop hits has received international attention, having sold out shows in more than 60 countries around the world.

Tickets for the 7:30 PM show will be sold through the Florence and Ward Beecher Box Office at Stambaugh Auditorium. Order by phone at 330-259-0555, online at stambaughauditorium.com, or in person. The box office is open Monday through Friday, 9:00 AM - 6:00 PM.

About Stambaugh Auditorium:

Stambaugh Auditorium is a non-profit public auditorium, which opened in 1926 through the generous gift of Youngstown area businessman Henry H. Stambaugh. The centerpiece of the complex is the Concert Hall, which has a seating capacity of 2,553 and is renowned for its near perfect acoustics. The auditorium also features a 9,700-square-foot ballroom (Jeanne D. Tyler Grand Ballroom), a recital hall (Anne K. Christman Memorial Hall), and a formal garden at the southern end of the building, all of which can be rented for public, business, or private functions. The venue welcomes national and international performers on a regular basis while also hosting local and regional events many of which use the Florence and Ward Beecher Box Office to sell and distribute tickets. Stambaugh Auditorium was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1984.
